

HEARD IN THE HALLS

Mom: What was your favorite animal?

Ali: I like the acorn.

Mom: The acorn?

Ali: Yeah, the one with the little spikes on his back.

Mom: Oh! You mean the porcupine.

Ali: Look Daddy! I got a tutu. You know, like Uncle Kevin has on his wrist. (after applying a temporary tattoo)

Nate: How much more time do we get off of school? (asking when summer break ends)

Mom: About 4 more weeks.

Tim: It's not just 4 more weeks. We get another month!

Nate: Try listening to a 10-minute song! It takes forever! (when listening to a classic piece for music)

Tim: Who gets the house when you die?

Mom: You all get one-fifth.

Tim: I get the kitchen!

Nate: I get the living room!

Justin: That's not how it works.

Ali: Can I go play in the snow?

Mom: No you're too sick.

Ali: I'm not really sick. I just have a runny nose and I cough too much.

Ali: When moms are home, brothers are not bosses! When moms are not home, brothers are bosses.

CEDAR LAKE CAMPUS

The main entrance received a facelift this fall. The front walk was repaired and widened, porch railings and 2 posts were removed to make way for custom stone pillars (still waiting to be topped with tapered columns), and a brick façade was added around the front door to match the parking garage. View pics and see more completed projects online. Next year, 2017 renovations will include new flooring in the dormitory corridor after a toilet overflow in the boys' locker room saturated the carpet. Visit days scheduled by request.

YEARBOOK

VOLUME 18
2016

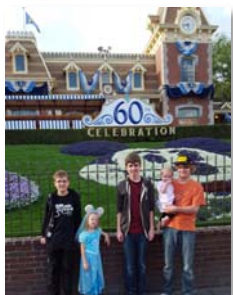

FACULTY CORNER

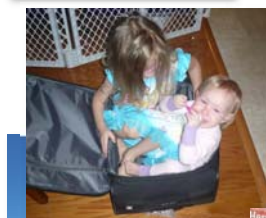

In their 18th year of collaboration, Dean of Students, Todd, and Professor Julie report that the academic years continue to fly by in a blink. How could their eldest pupil, Justin, be ready to drive in March? On the other end of the spectrum there's Mary Helen, turning 2 on January 8th, and just about ready to begin potty training! And after a couple of years of indecision, the Zasada baby twins in heaven were finally named this year: Angeline Barbara and Bernadette Suzanne. Which means they finally get their candy bar wrapper.
